

2025 IEHP HEART AWARD SCHOLARSHIP

In 2024, IEHP partnered with Children's Fund to create a new scholarship, The IEHP Heart Award Scholarship, to support the continuous educational achievement of graduating seniors who have experienced foster care, poverty, homelessness, abuse, and or neglect in San Bernardino County. With a mission to heal and inspire the human spirit, Inland Empire Health Plan (IEHP) is one of the top 10 largest Medicaid health plans and the largest not-for-profit Medicare-Medicaid public health plan in the country. All applicants and their nominators should review the IEHP Heart Award Scholarship guidelines before applying. The application process requires important information from both the applicant and the nominator. Please follow the outlined steps below.

YOUTH

1. Please write an essay (500-600 words) and submit it to your scholarship nominator. Your essay should answer the following three questions.
  - What life experiences have shaped who you are today and your values?
  - Who in your life has been your biggest influence?
  - Why are you pursuing higher education?
  - From a financial standpoint, what impact would this scholarship have on your education and your future goals?
2. Why are you pursuing higher education
  - What school/training program do you plan to attend
  - What major/certificate/training program are you pursuing
3. If awarded, you will be asked to provide a picture.

NOMINATOR

1. Have your youth applicant write their essay and submit to you. You will be submitting it on their behalf with this application.
2. Complete the Applicant Information below with the youth's information. Download the fillable pdf FIRST, then complete, save and email/print. GPA will be verified should the youth be selected.
3. Complete the Nominator Information below with your information.
4. Attach your Recommendation Statement with information about the youth that will help the selection committee understand their situation and why you believe they deserve this scholarship.
5. Attach the Youth Applicant's Essay. Ensure that the youth has answered the required questions and that the essay is 500-600 words. The more the selection committee knows about the youth, the better.
